

Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners expands New York office

The firm transfers its New York headquarters, led by Partner Fabio Ilacqua, to One Rockefeller Plaza

New York, 14 June 2019 - International law firm Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners announces it has relocated its New York office to One Rockefeller Plaza in Manhattan.

The move to a new and larger workspace further supports the growth strategy the firm is undertaking in the US where it has been present since its foundation. The firm launched in the USA as early as 1988, synchronising the opening of its New York office with the its Rome and Milan offices, and thus affirming - right from the start - its mission to be international.

The team in the New York office is led by Managing Partner Fabio Ilacqua who states: "Our new offices at One Rockefeller Plaza, are a further step in our growth strategy and consolidation in the US market that has always been part of our DNA. We are strengthening our activity to further expand in a part of the world that has always been interested in Italian innovation and creativity, with the aim to better serve our clients in seizing all the opportunities offered by this endlessly dynamic market."
